Christian object lessons: God has many different tools in His toolbox (the Church). Each is special and has a special purpose. We wouldn't use a whisk to hammer a nail, but a whisk is very useful in cooking. We expected to find a hammer, screwdriver, and wrench in the toolbox. In the same way, many times we only expect God to use the pastor,...

God's Toolbox. When the Bible was made available to man, man was to live by faith (II Corinthians 5:7, Galatians 3:1), and no longer needed to live by sight. He no longer needed the "proof" of miracles. God is not done with man yet. He still has big plans for those who are willing to turn to and heed Him.
